

Bolivia: A Commercial and Industrial Handbook (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from Bolivia: A Commercial and Industrial Handbook Sir: There is submitted herewith a commercial and industrial handbook of Bolivia, by W. L. Schurz, a trade commissioner of this Bureau (now commercial attache at Rio de Janeiro), who is also the author of the handbook of Paraguay, which was published as Special Agents Series No. 199. Similar handbooks of Colombia and of Venezuela, prepared by another representative of the Bureau, will soon come from the press. Mr. Schurz made a comprehensive personal investigation of the economic activities in Bolivia and the conditions governing the commercial life of the Republic. The results of his studies, embodied in this handbook, will, it is felt, be of substantial benefit to Americans who desire to sell in the Bolivian markets or to participate in the development of the countrys great natural resources. Mr. Schurz wishes to express his thanks to the following persons, who aided him in the course of his investigations of conditions in Bolivia: S. Abbott Maginnis, American Minister; W. Duval Brown, American consul; Nelson R. Park, American vice consul; Bautista Saavedra, President of the Republic; Jose Gutierrez Guerra, former President of the Republic; Carlos Gutierrez, Minister of Foreign Affairs; Julio Zamora, Minister of Finance; Ernesto Careaga Lanza, Minister of Government; Cesar Ochavez, Minister of Public Works and Industry; Gen. Zenon Cossio, prefect of the Department of Cochabamba; David Ascarrunz, prefect of the Department of Oruro; Nestor Velasco, prefect of the Department of La Paz; Moises Ascarrunz, director of the Bureau of Statistics; Carlos Tejada Sorzano, director general of the National Railways; Jacob Backus, general manager of the Bolivian section of the Antofagasta Bolivia Railway; Angel Sandoval, delegate of the Territory of Oriente and now justice of the Supreme Court.
