

The Murderers Among Us: History of Repression and Rebellion in Haiti Under Dr. Francois Duvalier, 1962-1971

Francois Duvaliers hold on power in Haiti, initially tenuous, grew stronger as American confrontations with Cuba under President Kennedy fostered a fear that Communism could sweep Haiti if Papa Doc were ousted. Nonetheless, several groups of daring rebels took on the formidable task of overthrowing the dictator. The mini-revolutions had little chance of success, but one thing was guaranteed: brutal retribution if the rebels were caught by the Duvalier regime and its militia of Tonton Macoutes. For the first time, Diederich reveals the names and personal stories of these rebels, adding color and detail to the tangled storyline of the Duvalier years.
