

The Reign of Doctor Joseph Gaspard Roderick de Francia in Paraguay: Being An (Classic Reprint)

On the first of May, 1818, Mr. Longchampn and myself embarked for Buenos A yres, with the intention of ptoceeding thence either to Chili or to Paraguay. The object f(our voyage was to collect some fresh materials for the natural history of those countries an employment for which our acquaintance with medicine had given us some faailitied As soon as we reached Buenos A yres, after a jassage of only xty days, we made the necessary in(i)iirree respecting the countries which we had proposed to visitandy at laiiit, selected Paraguay as being the place leat known, and being then more settled than any other of the provinces. A lthough, at that time. Doctor Franeia had been at the head of affiurs for many years, in Paragnay, yet, not die most distant information respetig his govrasaent afupeared to have re ched Buenos Ay res; it was g0tiemlly supposed that the province was in a state of profound tranquillity.(Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and dont occur in the book.)About the Publisher Forgotten Books is a publisher of historical writings, such as: Philosophy, Classics, Science, Religion, History, Folklore and Mythology.Forgotten Books Classic Reprint Series utilizes the latest technology to regenerate facsimiles of historically important writings.
