

Orient et occident, Op.25: Full score (Maecenas Classic Series)

The Great Paris Exhibition of 1869 introduced western Europe to Eastern culture, and gave Saint-Saëns the idea for this splendid March. It combines the fluency, freshness and craftsmanship of his best writing with an endearing charm not often associated with his later music. Hokum of course, but an absolute delight. This edition is cued for bands of almost any size and range of ability, whilst allowing performances of total authenticity. This is a new, corrected score edited by Bruce Parry and Timothy Reynish, who has provided an intriguing and helpful introduction. An early gem of the military band repertoire.
